Newsletter - January 2010

Dear Members and Families,

We hope you were able to enjoy the "Festive Season" with families and friends, and we wish you all, a healthy and prosperous New Year.

The Board of Directors has been very pleased with your participation in all of last year's membership functions and as a result, the Marconi Club enjoyed one of the better financial results of the last few years.

We have now completed the renovation of the halls and hopefully we can continue to improve the remaining of our facilities, until it can truly become a place of comfort and entertainment for ourselves and our extended families.

Nomination for Board of Directors.

Membership

The Board of Directors along with the membership of the Marconi Club, proudly accept Anna Marie Jubenville as the newest member of our Club. Our warmest welcome to Anna Marie.

To avoid any misunderstanding regarding annual fees by some of our members, I like to remind you about a motion voted on September 27/08 that changed the Member's Article 1 - Section 4 of our constitution with the following:

“ Membership fees will remain the same ($ 100.00) while seniors with a minimum of 10 years of membership, and everyone else except “ Elected Lifetime Members “will have to pay 50% of the membership fees “

Fees are as follow: Regular membership $ 100.00 - Spouse $ 20.00
 Senior (with minimum of 10 year membership) $ 50.00 - Spouse $ 10.00
 Disable $ 50.00 – Spouse $ 10.00
